Notes

1. Blue fluid: its effect depends on where it is drunk. In the Cupboard, it takes you to the Long corridor on the 1st floor; in the big lab (west part of the Laboratory), to the Cellar vault, section 4; in the small lab (east part of the Laboratory), to the south stairs of the SE tower on this floor.
2. SE tower, south stairs: reached by drinking the blue fluid in the small lab.
3. The two magical passways are linked: the Laboratory's east wall (SW tower) leads directly to the Corridor's west wall (SE tower).
4. Hidden doorway from the Study onto the eastside (SE tower) staircase, which runs from the 1st to the 4th floor.

1. Cellar vault section 4: reached by drinking the blue fluid in the big lab (west part of the 4th-floor Laboratory).
2. Cellar vault section 6: where you land after falling through the secret corridor south of the 1st-floor Magic workshop.
3. Strike hole: a breach in the wall between the Dungeon and the Cellar vault. It lies directly beneath the cannon in the Courtyard. A strike landed there long ago and broke through the Cellar ceiling and this wall together.
